Job Description

The Foreman Art Gallery of Bishop's University seeks two art camp animators to help run our 6 week-long Summer Art Camp. The successful candidates will work as a team to deliver art programming to children between the ages of 6-12 in the creative bilingual environment of the Community Art Lab.

Our ideal candidate is bilingual and possesses excellent leadership and interpersonal skills with a background in arts education. The work requires a good degree of independence and flexibility and we are seeking candidates who will enthusiastically and positively contribute to the experience of our campers. A valid certificate in First Aid/CPR would be considered an asset, as would familiarity with the Mac OS and software and experience or interest in alternative and eco-conscious teaching models.

Candidate Profile

Description of Tasks:

Under the primary supervision of the ArtLab Coordinator, each Art Camp Educator will be responsible for a series of duties including:

- Deliver bilingual art camp programs to youth;
- Ensure that health and safety concerns are monitored and controlled;

FOREMAN

- Liaise with parents each morning when they drop off their children;
- Document the art camp activities using a variety of media, chiefly using a camera and Mac computer;
- Provide feedback to supervisors at the end of the week;
- Submit a final report on the experience of leading our March Break Art Camp and suggest ways to improve the program for next year;
- Other tasks as required, related to the Art Camp project

Education Required

- Education in Fine Arts, Arts Education, Arts Administration, Art History or Museum Studies;
- Experience Required: Less than a year of experience in arts education; previous experience in animation or working with children
- Special Skills or Knowledge Required: Accomplished language competence in English and French;
- Personal attributes: Excellent organizational skills, ability to work well within a team, maturity, commitment, and a good work ethic;

To be eligible for this position, the candidate must

- Be a Canadian Citizen, permanent resident or have refugee status
- Be legally entitled to work in Canada
- Be between 16 and 30 years of age at the start of employment

More about the camp

Since 2023, the ArtLab collaborates with the Bishop's University Office of Sustainable Development to offer our March Break Art campers five days of activities under the theme Art and Nature.

Accompanied by student artists, children aged 6 to 12 will explore a variety of exciting art projects that will stimulate their creativity and sense of initiative, in a caring, inclusive, and bilingual atmosphere.
